OPPOSITION DROPS INTO OPEN PITFALL.

Riley's motion which T. M. Tweedie, Junior member, for Calgary, moved.

Provided, however, that any legislation introduced in accordance with the conditions shall not affect any bona-fide agreement which may have been entered into prior to the time when the railroads of Alberta or any railway company applied by a guarantee, bond or otherwise, or by any other securities under the provisions of any statute of the province of Alberta.

Micheux Silent.

In moving his amendment, Mr. T. M. Tweedie said that the Government was that industry should not be pursued by municipalities and that they should think that railways, which received the bulk of the provincial credit and other financial support, should be granted, in addition, a large loan amounting to $100,000 annually at the low rate of 4 per cent calculated figures. They expected the railways like every other corporation should pay the interest on their debts.

Political Capital.

"I can quite see that if the Conservative party get into power in this province that the C.P.R. will see to it that the railways will pay some compensation," said C. M. O'Brien, the Social Democrat.

"There has been an attempt made," he said, "to manufacture political capital out of this motion on the ground that the farmers and business better off if the railways were made to pay more." He said, "That is not so, for they would be in far better shape now so long as they remain the slaves of capital."

The House then divided on the amendment, which was lost.

On the original motion being carried, the House voted for the amendment.

REWARD OF $100.

A reward of $100 is being offered by Mr. John G. Ross, the reasurer of her husband alive or for the recovery of his body, if he dies under a misapprehension. He thought that the amendment had been introduced.

Premier Burton: I thought you did; otherwise I do not see how you could have been consistent with your own amendment.

The Speaker and the member could not agree as to what stage that Mr. Tweedie wished to have the vote deferred until he must refer it to the following session. The bill was then referred to the Alberta Ladies' College of Deb Debates.

The amendment was moved by Bramley Moore changing the name to the Red Deer Ladies' College, or the name to the Alberta Ladies' College, to appropriate the name Alberta to its college.

Hastings, Ontario, said he thought any denominational institution should have the denomination of its name. He said that he and he thought this should be called the Presbyterian Ladies' College, A. M. McDonald, who was present with Mr. Tweedie, said that that particular point in view of the fact that the C.P.R. was in the position of enjoying the services of the church, particularly in the matter of putting up their buildings in the towns and cities, should be considered in the name of the Alberta Ladies' College.

The amendment was lost, and the bill was reported to the House for the third reading.

The High River and Medicine Hat Railway Company and the Edmonton, Stony Plain and Wabamun Railway Company were also considered in committees of the whole and progress reported.

EXPERTS' REPORT IS DISCUSSED

Mr. Parsons said he was surprised to receive a report from the experts according to which he had voted that the city would be without water or power for a year.

Mr. Parsons was asked by Alderman Calder if he did not think it would be a good thing to move to some point up the river, where possibly coal might be obtained more easily.

He said he would be the first to object to any such suggestion, but he thought that had been entered into under the heading of they just dues to the province.

Michener, who merely nodded his assent to it.

C.P.R. Exemptions.

Bramley Moore pointed out that the trend of taxation in the province was toward a single tax upon land. It was agreed that the C.P.R. should免予 (exempt) the single tax to railway because they built lines in the province in accordance with that principle.

The House then went into the committee of the whole to consider the incorporation of the Alberta Ladies' College of Deb Debates.

The amendment was moved by Bramley Moore changing the name to the Red Deer Ladies' College, or the name to the Alberta Ladies' College, to appropriate the name Alberta to its college.

INVESTIGATION NOT CLEAR.

Premier Sifton said he was glad that the Opposition had been able to unite their forces and agree upon a definite program.

The members spoke of other contracts that might have been entered into under the heading of "investigation not clear."

King George to go to Goodwood and Cewe

London, March 3.—King George, whose presence in the spring will be much greater than expected at his accession, has announced his intention of spending in August, during which time he will be the guest of the Duke of Grafton, and at Goodwood house, whence he will proceed direct to Cewe for the Royal Ascot meet. The Queen will not accompany the King to Goodwood, but will go to Cewe later. At the close of Oxford Term last will join the king and queen at Sandringham, where he will spend part of his vacation at Sandringham.

The announcement is made that Lord Alfred Paget, who is now more than 50 years old, Hussey Road residence, known as "Upper Lodge," was granted by the late Lord Alfred, passed by Queen Victoria. Upper Lodge is stocked with valuable pictures, and the Lady Paget has long been a keen collector.

Some have already been sold privately and others are to be disposed of by auction shortly.

Ten Little Suffragettes. Ten little Suffragettes, standing in a line;

One sped a telegram, then there were nine;

Nine little Suffragettes, at a debate;

One strained her vocal cords, then there were eight;

Eight little Suffragettes, out until eleven;

Her husband came after one, then there were seven;

Seven little Suffragettes, up to cun-

nicy tricks;

One criticised another's hat, then there were six;

Six little Suffragettes, for votes they did contrive;

A tiny mouse scared one away, then there were five;

Five little Suffragettes, making noise;

A policeman arrested one, then there were four;

Four little Suffragettes, glad that they were free;

A man agreed to one, then there were three;

Three little Suffragettes, to their movement true;

One tried to make a speech, then there were two;

Two little Suffragettes, with their work undone;

The other had just back home, then there was one;

One little Suffragette, in it just for fun;

No one listened to talk so there was none;

Opinion of Suffragettes.

It's a gloomy outlook for the future of the race if suffragettes spreads and the views of Dr. Albin, a German physician.

"Climbing, domestic-minded women are attracted to strong, honest men; the suffragettes who are attractive are those selective instinct and will live with their husbands and be good partners." This is the professor's declaration he knows from observation—in other words, he does not consider that women are more attractive than men.

She is still in residence at the Hotel Macdonald, and the poor mon commissioners are still in a quandary.

The commissioners were struck dumb with surprise. They sought to overcome the puzzle by sending a telegram to the Queen, telling her that the Queen, with one of the other, the Queen, appealed to her ladyship to help her out of this embarrassing situation by re-tracing her steps. "We have had to find an implement on you as a final implement, pleased Lord Macdonald.

He implored me, their reporter Lady Domini shall not submit."

MILITANTS IN DIRE PERIL OF BEING DUCKED

Wimbledon: Meeting of Suffragettes in London Ends in Wild Disorder.

CROWD TEARS DOWN PLATFORM OF WOMEN

Several Suffragettes Knocked Down in Rush and Their Hair Disarranged.

London, March 2.—Public anger with the suffragettes led to wild reprisals today. Attempts to hold meetings in Hyde Park and on Wednesday common were attended by disorderly scenes. Neither Mrs. Pankhurst nor any of her close companions could obtain a hearing in Hyde Park, where a crowd of eight hundred men and women, ironically dressed, waved sticks and gesticulated the speakers with cries of "You must be a woman to understand us." The mob tried to rush the wagon in which the suffragettes were standing, but the suffragettes' arrival and projected flight.

Abandoned Efford To Speak

The speaker, who had agreed to make speeches, but delayed for some time to reply to the disorderly scenes, was compelled to leave his wagon when thrown at the speakers, some of whom were struck several times. In the confusion he found that he had been disengaged from a walking stick, which became entangled in her hair and another suffragette, who was a male member of her audience, who tried to get into the wagon, was also struck. The speaker, in the heat of the struggle, lost his stick. Eventually the women were escorted from the park by the police.

Rushed At Platform.

At the Wimbledon meeting the disorders were even more serious.

About a score of militant suffragettes mounted the platform and attempted to speak, but were driven off the stage.

Uprouse soon began. The crowd roared for some time to reply to the disorders, and then, when out of her wagon when thrown at the speakers, some of whom were struck several times. In the confusion he found that he had been disengaged from a walking stick, which became entangled in her hair and another suffragette, who was a male member of her audience, who tried to get into the wagon, was also struck. The speaker, in the heat of the struggle, lost his stick. Eventually the women were escorted from the park by the police.

MAY MOVE BASEBALL GROUNDS TO EAST END

Protest from Residents of East Again Asks Government to Postponed the May Meeting in Charge of Local Control.

Residents of New-York who have been entreating the city council to have the high fence around the baseball grounds removed, and those who have been protesting against the high grounds remaining where they had grounds removed, are to meet the legislative committee to the council yesterday. Mayor Short suggested that the ball grounds placed on the east end C.P.R. property, where the city could derive benefit from the removal of the fence, be given to the city.

The shouts of "duck them" were heard as there was a pond near by there, and the ball grounds might be carried out. For half an hour there was a scene of wild confusion, and the police were called in to assist in protecting their utmost to protect the women.

Gradually the police succeeded in forcing a way for the women to a house on the edge of the grounds to which they were admitted, and hundreds of persons of the following day, who had been watching the crowd for about an hour, when the crowd diminished and they were able to escape.

To Repress Suffragettes.

London, March 2.—The Daily Telegraph announces that when parliament resumes on Monday, Mr. H. H. Kems will introduce a bill amending the law in relation to such offences as the breaking of windows by the suffragettes and giving wider discretionary power to the authorities.

Opposition in House.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 2.—The woman suffrage has come under the ban of the Russian police. At a number of meetings in St. Petersburg, organized "Woman Day," speeches by suffragettes were rigorously suppressed. In the course of the meetings, they were adopted declaring that "only the enfranchisement of women can remove the miseries of their condition."

TURKISH GOVERNMENT FEARS REVOLUTION

Young Turk Leaders Are Nervous and Army Officers Have Been Dismissed from Political Posts.

Constantinople, Mar. 2.—The government appears to be in a state of fresh revolution since the discovery of the conspiracy on Thursday last. Several hundred officers and civilians, including a former military governor, were made prisoners. The guard of honour at the barracks has been increased by two regiments. The guard of honour at the Victoria government, with the Canadian government, also like to be increased. It is also reported that General Baden Powell, the chief Scout, is quite prepared to meet any emergency. He has been told that the home country is being drained of its youthful strength.

Danger to St. Paul's Averted.

London, Mar. 2.—The danger to St. Paul's Cathedral from the proposed construction of a subway for street cars in the rear of the cathedral has been averted by the decision of the London County Council to withdraw the subway proposal from the bill before the House of Commons. The decision for various improvements to the transportation system of London was made by the London County Council, which has been informed by the parliamentary committee to withdraw the subway proposal from the bill before the House of Commons. The decision for various improvements to the transportation system of London

SHE DOESN'T FEAR TAR AND FEATHERS

London, Mar. 2.—General Mrs. Pankhurst, the militant suffragette whom the police have been trying to get away from a man in Hyde Park, declared today that she has no fear of being tarred and feathered, and that she would be ready to tar and feather her. She described the wild scenes in Hyde Park as "an incident of boyish playfulness," and added: "Every fresh outbreak of militancy only adds to the number of enthusiastic recruits. The vast majority of men admire us."

SPORTEskimos Easily Defeated
Hudson Bay Last Night 10-0

Provincial Champions Outclassed Mercantile League Champions
Eskimos Retain Fashion Craft Cup and Win City Championship—Winners Played Good Game and Appeared to be in Good Condition.

Almost a month ago the Eskimos won the championship of the north division of the A.A.H.A. Yesterday they automatically became provincial champions, the members of the Provincial team of Saskatchewan, to meet the Eskimos in the finals for the title. Last night they won the city championship by decisively defeating the Hudson Bay team. The only words left to the Eskimos were to try to defeat the Saskatchewan champions and if successful in this to challenge for the all-canadian title.

In defeating the Hudson Bay, the Eskimos retain the Fashion Craft Cup. They also know that there could be no doubt as to the superiority of the Eskimos over the Mercurials. The Mercurials will be out of their feet at every stage of the game, and might easily have played much larger score had they so desired.

Several members of the Bay team showed anything but good sportsmanship, and the most hardened when they saw they were thoroughly beaten, resorted to tripping and other questionable methods. The result was that Judge of Play Deeter had a continual string of green-shirted players in his penalty box.

At five minutes of the Bay team were on the fence, leaving only Vancouver and Battling Robinson (also colored), of Winnipeg.

AN ALL-STAR
N.H.A. TEAM
COMING WEST

Will Play a Combined Vancouver-Westminster Team a Series of Games

By Bulletin Leased Wire.

Vancouver, Mar. 3.—An all-star hockey team composed of players in the National Hockey Association, will probably come west to the Coast next week. It is a team of the S.C.L. put together by Frank Patrick, managing director of the Victoria Westminister team here, while Victoria has been chosen as the home base.

At five minutes of the Bay team were on the fence, leaving only Vancouver and Battling Robinson (also colored), of Winnipeg.

Steele and St. George Quiz

This unusual state of affairs happened because of the second half. First St. George went off to the fence for mixing things with Steele. Then Steele went off for five minutes. Both teams were on the fence to arouse the ire of the judge of play and a moment later Cornell got three minutes for a foul. Steele then walked up to Deeter and called the Judge of play several uncomplimentary names. Mr. Deeter, who immediately banished St. George and Steele to the fence, told the players not to worry about the time lost without waiting for the expiration of their penalties. It looked for a while as though the two teams would be separated but the Bay went on playing five men to the Eskimos seven. Finally, St. George was given a ten-minute room, but Steele didn't show his face again.

The Eskimos looked to be in great shape last night. They seated rings around their opponents and at times showed some zip. Steele and St. George was the only one of the regulars not to show up. His place was taken by Portia Newman, who played a good game. Mulroney had a bad cold and was at a dead loss at points. Steele was too far out, however, and got much the better of the argument, giving the Eskimos several terrific jolts into the boards.

In the last two games Jack Gordon has been the best player on the team and the best goal-scorer on the team. He kept up the good work last night, scoring four goals and making a save. Steele and St. George, who had suffered from a bad cold, did not play well. Sutherland got rid of some of the indifference which had characterized his play and showed a considerable life, working well with the forwards. Held, in goal, was not called upon to make any saves, with the exception of a few minutes at the commencement of the second half, when he did his best.

Eskimos All Starred.

For once every member of the team was good, but the Eskimos, at cover point, had starred all season, but his work last night surprised many. Steele and St. George, who roared, showed all kinds of speed and pep, despite the fact that St. George was not in top form. The Eskimos was too far out, however, and got much the better of the argument, giving the Eskimos several terrific jolts into the boards.

Eskimos Are Declared Provincial Hockey ChampionsSPORT*UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA WON IN SASKATOON.

By Bulletin Leased Wire.
Saskatoon, Mar. 3.—The University of Alberta defeated the Saskatchewan Provincial team here today, 4 to 2, for the inter-provincial championship of Alberta. The game, which the Eskimos said was not a good exhibition, and the splendid work of Chubb, the coach, and his assistants, was largely responsible for their victory.

Souland and Wales Drew.

Canadian Associated Press.
Calgary, Mar. 3.—The International Association here defeated Scotland and Wales, of Wrexham, England, in a scruples draw. The game was played under somewhat unfavorable conditions, the weather having been above the ordinary. Thompson, the Scottish centre half, was the best player, but he did not hit his best. Orrick and J. Walker were good, checking and marking well. The Welshman, T. Wyns, and Davies played well, while Vizard's work was splendid. In the second half, however, the Welsh forward, who, however, showed lack of ability, pressed them attack successfully.

BUCKLEY GAMES JUST NIGHT.

The Buckley games were held at the Allan Coliseum last night at the South Side rink. A feature of the game was the roughness at times, due to the eagerness of the A.C.L. to defeat the C.I.C. In the first period, the two teams split evenly in the first two games, the third will be played at 8 p.m. On Saturday. In the first two consecutive matches, the third game will be played on the mainland. If the two teams are tied, the game will be decided by a special trial will be held at the capital.

It is proposed to play a world's series between the champion of the Coast and the N.H.A. champion.
